

Beach Blast Top Five

The Top 5 Reasons to come to Beach Blast ...

1. *One word...
Rock. Band (ok, two words).*
2. Various games involving the word "death"
3. To find out how we're going to top last year's trip to Medieval Times
4. A chance to develop your ability to withstand sleep deprivation (just kidding—we will actually get a reasonable amount of sleep this year—we promise).
5. Let's be honest, you have nothing else to do the weekend before Thanksgiving.

What are you doing the weekend before Thanksgiving?

Beach Blast '09

Beach Blast is a chance for us to get together with friends from around NC for a weekend of hanging out and a chance to ask challenging questions about who we are and what we are living for.

This year we have "upped the ante" just a little bit. The Springmaid Beach Resort is on beach front property in North Myrtle Beach, and they have a putt-putt course. That picture on the front of this brochure should give you an idea of just how sweet it is.

The accommodations might be nice, but ask anyone who has been before and they will tell you that the best part of the trip is the relationships.

That and the "musical chairs of death," of course.

When

November 20-22
(the weekend before Thanksgiving)

Where

The Springmaid Beach Resort in Myrtle Beach (yes, we said RESORT)

Who

The youth groups of Christ Presbyterian Church (Winterville), Sandhills Presbyterian (Southern Pines), and Church of the Redeemer (Monroe, NC) AND THEIR FRIENDS.

What

A weekend of fun, relaxing, seeing old friends and making new ones...a chance to open God's word together and grow in relationship with him and each other. Polar bear swims (or not so polar bear if the weather is warm- you never know) and a few surprises along the way.

How much?

Sign up by Nov. 2 and the cost is $100.
Sign up by Nov. 13 and the cost is $125.

What should I bring?

Casual clothes for the weekend and beach clothes too (it could be cold or warm- who knows?); Bible, pen, & notebook; spending money for 2 meals, beach towel, camera, & personal items. No bedding necessary- we're staying in a resort!
